THE SOLUTION

Real-time resident engagement accelerates issue resolution

With BirdEye, Coastal Ridge sends real-time SMS review requests to each resident immediately after an interaction. Residents are automatically routed to the top review site of their choice: Google, or Facebook. Instant alerts notify appropriate staff of incoming new reviews, enabling quick issue resolution and preventing problems from escalating.

THE RESULT

Hundreds of new reviews. More robust reputation.

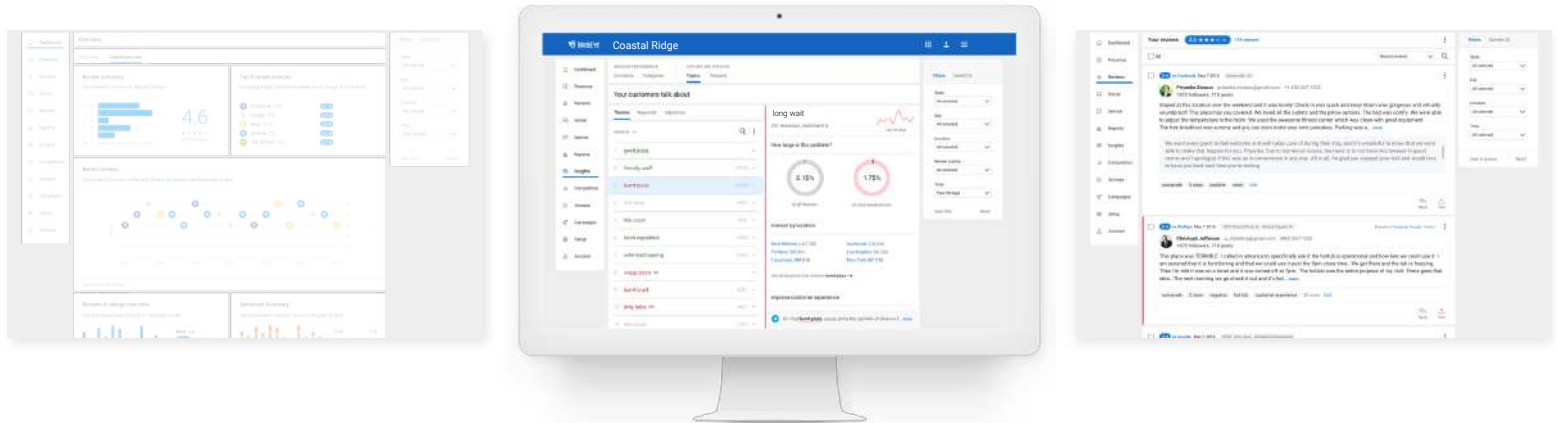

Less than one year after BirdEye, Coastal Ridge generated 7x more Google reviews and 2x more Facebook reviews, boosting their nationwide rating from 3.5 to 4.1. With an easy, convenient way to leave feedback, more residents were willing to do so. Dedicated responses to resident issues created positive experiences out of initial frustrations. Resident feedback on Google and Facebook influenced home seekers and helped to boost resident acquisition. This surge in satisfaction was further illustrated by BirdEye's Natural Language Processing (NLP) insight: Coastal Ridge's sentiment score for Customer Service/Experience increased from B+ to A as a result of their customer-centric initiatives.
